Bream Creek

Bream Creek Vineyard produces premium wines from Tasmania's naturally cool climate and has been rewarded with 20 trophies and over 420 show medals since 1990. Our 7.5ha vineyard at Marion Bay in the south-east of Tasmania was originally planted in 1974, making it one of the oldest commercial vineyards on the island. Fred Peacock purchased the vineyard in 1990 and expanded the Pinot Noir and Chardonnay plantings, as well as introducing Sauvignon Blanc. Fred also planted what was arguably the first commercial planting of the rare German grape Schönburger in the southern hemisphere.

2014 Bream Creek Pinot Rosé

Tasting Note

More rain than usual and a cold snap in November and December meant that flowering was disrupted, hence yields for vintage 2014 were significantly down across all southern Australian states. However, these lower yields meant that the fruit from that vintage was of excellent quality, with perfect balance between flavour and physiological ripeness.

An easy drinking style of wine with aromas of liqueur strawberries and dried Mediterranean herbs. The palate is rich, with strawberries and young red cherry fruit characters, excellent texture and a clean refreshing finish.

Deliberately produced in a drier style to better accompany a range of fine foods, such as grilled seafood with a lemon beurre blanc sauce or a rich tomato and prawn pasta, it is best served slightly chilled and is ideal for informal summer entertaining. Forget the tea – rosé and scones could be the new summer fashion!
